 - (b) as may be required by law, a court of competent jurisdiction or any governmental or regulatory authority.
- 9.3 Neither party shall use the other party's confidential information for any purpose other than to exercise its rights and perform its obligations under or in connection with the Contract.

 - (b) The Supplier may not assign or deal in any other manner with any or all of its rights or obligations under the Contract without the prior written consent of the Customer.
- 12.2 Subcontracting. The Supplier may not subcontract any or all of its rights or obligations under the Contract without the prior written consent of the Customer. If the Customer consents to any subcontracting by the Supplier, the Supplier shall remain responsible for all the acts and omissions of its subcontractors as if they were its own.
- 12.3 Entire agreement. The Contract constitutes the entire agreement between the parties and supersedes and extinguishes all previous agreements, warranties, representations and understandings between them relating to its subject matter.
